

Lopez's fall opening Friday.

Circuit Court convenes October 23d.

The melancholy days are almost here.

Sale of town lots at Pilot Knob Thursday.

Aug. Schwab shipped a car of cattle to St. Louis Tuesday.

Forty-one years ago to-day since the battle of Pilot Knob.

Music at the fall opening of the Lopez Store Company next Friday.

Miss Mary Steel is teaching the Fisher school. The session began Monday.

Geo. W. Buford reports that he has sold his farm on Crane Pond for $3500.

J. Hummel has a new ad. this week and offers rare bargains in the grocery line.

Wanted—A farm of from 250 to 750 acres. Address Rogers Bros., Bloomingburg, Ohio.

Quite a number of Valley folk went to Iron Mountain Saturday and spent the day hunting nuts.

H. B. Jones intends making some improvements on the store building he recently purchased in Ironton.

A number of people from the Valley attended a dance at Bismarck last Thursday evening. All report a good time.

The corn crop, that promised to be unusually large, was materially shortened by the big rain and overflow of last week.

To Joseph Campbell, of Marble Creek, we are indebted for a half dozen of the finest, largest apples we have seen in many days.

The Iron County Teachers' Association will be held October 28th, 27th and 28th. The programme will be published next week.

To Master Jere Wick the editor is indebted for a fine bouquet of dahlias, presented Monday morning. Jere has our sincere thanks.

The celebration of the forty-first anniversary of the battle of Pilot Knob is in progress to-day. There are a number of visitors in the valley.

John Kidd, night operator at this station, has a sixty day lay-off, which he is spending in Colorado. Roy Reel is filling his position here.

Mein Herr Aug. Rieke celebrated the anniversary of his birth last Sunday. A few friends were present and a very pleasant afternoon followed.

The Reynolds County Baptist Association was in session at Munger Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday last. The attendance was good.

The celebration of the battle of Pilot Knob begins on the battle ground to-day and will continue for three days. Quite a large attendance is expected.

In all there are not ten Hungarians left at Pilot Knob. We never did have any great confidence in the outcome of the colonization proposition.

W. J. Lee, will, we understand, probably establish a general office in Arcadia, from which he will have control of and handle the business of his four hub factories.

Work on the superstructure of M. L. Townsend's new residence, on east High street, was begun last week. C. J. Tual of Ironton is in charge of the work.—Potosi Journal.

Recorder Hawkins to-day issued a marriage license to Frederick Max Dietrich and Anna Marie Louise Heeb. Judge Barnhouse will perform the ceremony this evening.

Services will be held in St. Paul's church Sunday at the usual hours. The morning address will be on "Sunday—its history and the manner in which the day should be observed by Christians."

The report that John W. Hayes, the engineer who was scalded in the wreck between here and Middlebrook, was dead, was a mistake. Mr. Hayes is improving every day and in a fair way to recover.

Trains are still running very slowly over the washed-out track between here and Middlebrook. It was not until the last of the week that the wrecked engines were in shape to be taken to the shops at De Soto.

The K. P. members and families had a very enjoyable time after lodge last Friday evening. An oyster supper was served in the basement of the Baptist church, and a couple of hours passed very pleasantly.

We understand that some repairs are badly needed on the public school building, and unless something is done at once the property will suffer greatly. We can not understand why there should be any more delay.

Dr. Gay has received a letter from our venerable friend Henry L. Simmerman, announcing his safe arrival at Philadelphia. Henry writes that he was sick when he left here, sick on the way and is still sick. He says he will return to Ironton about the first of October.

Geo. L. Moore is now agent for the M. K. & T. railroad at Hillsboro, Texas. George writes home that he has just returned from a three weeks' visit to the Portland Exposition. He says he had a fine trip and enjoyed himself immensely.

The Conference of the M. E. Church, South, concluded its labors at Caruthersville Monday. Rev. I. B. Manly is returned to Arcadia for another year, and Rev. A. P. Saffold is returned to Bellevue. Rev. W. A. Humphreys is removed from Festus to De Soto.

The general fall opening of the Lopez Store Co. occurs on Friday, September 29th. The firm has spared no efforts in bringing together a gorgeous array of fine merchandise second to none in Southeast Missouri. Music, souvenirs and a pleasant time is assured all who attend.

The scholarships for the course in Telegraphy and Railroad Bookkeeping, to be sold at twenty-five per cent. reduction during October, entitle the holders to every advantage for a good situation. Now is the time. The Queen City Business College, Springfield, Missouri, is an old reliable school.

On account of Veiled Prophet's parade at St. Louis, October 3, 1905, the Iron Mountain Railway will sell round trip tickets to St. Louis and return at one fare for the round trip ($2.75). Tickets to be sold October 2d and 3d, with final return limit October 4th.

C. E. DOWNEY, Agent.

Notice to members of Iron Lodge, No. 107, I. O. O. F., that on October 2d a full attendance is desired, as business of importance is to be transacted. Please arrange matters and make an effort to be present on above date. By order of the Lodge.

E. L. BARNHOUSE, Sec'y.

The County Court met Tuesday and appropriated about $2500 to repair the county roads.

The county clerk was ordered to advertise for bids to build another span to the bridge across Knob creek. Bids are also asked for the construction of piers for a bridge across Reed's Creek, near Bellevue.

W. J. Schwab Monday received the following telegram, dated St. Louis: "Miss Wilhelmina Bernice Frauenthal arrived five o'clock this morning via Stork Line."

Signed "Barney." This makes No. 4 for Barney. We congratulate him and are glad to know that mother and daughter are doing nicely.

The many friends of Mr. Chas. J. Newman will be pained to learn that he has been in the hospital at Chicago the past week, his ailment being of the nature of typhoid fever.

The latest information from him was, though, that he was improving, and we hope to report his early recovery.

Sheriff Marshall has a warrant for one John Shelton, an agent of the Chicago Portrait Company, on the charge of embezzlement. Shelton delivered some pictures here, collected for same, and the company's left Ironton before the Company made complaint and his present location is not known.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. G. R. Gay entertained a few friends in honor of her nephew, Mr. Hartford Collins, Jr., who leaves in a few days for Quincy, Ill., where he will enter a business college.

Among the guests were: Misses Clara Hanson, Florence Fletcher, Mamie Roehry, Adele Hanson and Ethel Collins, and Messrs. Grafton Small, Will Edgar, Fred. Marckland and Hartford Collins.

Mrs. Woodside asks the REGISTER to tell the ladies that she has just returned from a visit to St. Louis where she purchased her stock of fall and winter millinery, which, she wishes to assure them, is as elegant and complete as was ever brought to Ironton.

The goods are arriving daily and are now ready for inspection. The opening will occur next week. The exact date will be announced later.

Important tailoring event. We have on exhibition at our store for this week only. A large display of choice woolsens in 1-1/3 yard lengths. This will give you a better idea of how the goods will look when made up. These fine samples were sent us by Edward E. Strauss & Co., the big merchant tailors of Chicago, for whom we have been local agent for years. Do not fail to call and examine them at the Lopez Store Co.

C. A. White, of Lesterville, and Mr. J. Hummel, of Ironton, are this week putting in the machinery for a new hub factory at Lesterville. The firm will be White & Hummel, manufacturers of wagon hubs. Mr. White, who is an experienced and competent man in hubs, will look after the factory, and Mr. Hummel will have charge of the business affairs of the concern. We wish them every success. The office of the company will be maintained in Ironton.

Capt. Souldard Turner recently presented friend Trauernicht, at Middlebrook, with a number of curios for his famous collection. In the list was a bolo, a knife about eighteen inches long used by the Filipinos, a bullet from Moro Castle, and a piece of the foundation stone of the celebrated fortress, three different pieces of Filipino money and a large sea bean. They make quite an addition to Mr. Trauernicht's museum, and he is very grateful to the donor.

Under a new ruling of the Internal Revenue Department all druggists and other dealers in proprietary remedies known to contain alcohol, will be required to pay the regular government liquor license of $25 a year. This ruling will affect nearly every country store in this county, since they commonly handle certain well-known remedies which will fall under the ban of this ruling. They will either have to put up the cost of the license or go out of the business. Probably many will adopt the latter course, as their sales of medicines are hardly large enough to justify the payment of the license.

Conductor John Ryan and brakeman Walter Dearing and E. D. Maddox, on the south-bound local freight, were quite seriously burned by a gasoline explosion in a box car at the Arcadia station about 1:30 o'clock Sunday morning.

Two five gallon cans of gasoline were loaded in the car here and when brakeman Dearing opened the car door at Arcadia an explosion followed. Dearing was blown from the car and badly burned on the face and arms. Ryan and Maddox, who were standing at the car door, were also badly burned.

An investigation afterward revealed that probably half of the gasoline had leaked from the tanks to the car floor. Dr. Marshall was summoned, dressed the wounds of the injured men and took them to the hospital in St. Louis that day.

Two local teams, "Fats" and "Leans" played a warm game of ball last Friday afternoon. The weather was ideal, there was a good crowd in attendance and the game was full of interest from start to finish. And considering many of the players hadn't touched a ball nor bat for years, it wasn't a bad game, either. In a score of 18 to 21 the "Fats" won out. Here is the score:

A suit wherein B. B. Reagan, L. A. McKee, John Schwab, J. S. Benson, R. E. Rudy, J. C. Paulus, P. G. Carthy, G. D. Marks, Gus. Kaesmacher, Geo. Steel and W. T. Gay are plaintiffs, and the County Court of Iron County, Missouri, William H. Buford, Warren C. Johnson and Marion Lewis, as judges of said County Court, J. N. Lewis as treasurer of Iron County, and the Iron County Bank, a banking corporation, defendants, was filed in the Circuit Court Thursday of last week. The suit grows out of the selection of a county depository for the public money by the County Court last May. The petitioners allege that the action of the County Court in that connection was unlawful, and they seek to have same set aside and have the Court again advertise for bids from the banks. A temporary injunction is asked for to restrain the county treasurer from depositing any more of the county money with the Iron County Bank. The bond of the Iron County Bank for $50,000—as county depository—is declared insufficient and various other charges and allegations are made. The matter will come up for hearing at the October term of the Circuit Court. Geo. D. Reynolds of St. Louis, and Adrain Steel of Ironton, are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

Bill Dooley, the insane feudist and murderer, who made his escape from the asylum at Farmington Wednesday of last week, was recaptured about one mile north of Brule, fifteen miles from this city, Saturday afternoon. Dooley made his appearance at Brule Saturday morning, having spent the night in a barn belonging to T. L. Stewart, a farmer there, who saw Dooley starting away, leaving behind him a horse he had evidently ridden there the night before. Dooley said he didn't want the horse, or something of the kind, and started west. He was recognized as the missing feudist and the authorities at Farmington were at once telephoned. They in turn telephoned Sheriff Marshall here, and he being in the south end of the county on official business, County Clerk O'Neal and Circuit Clerk Hawkins got a rig and at once started after the fugitive. They came up with him about one mile beyond Brule, two boys having him in charge and bringing him this way. Dooley offered no resistance and was docile as could be. He was barefooted and was scantily clad. He talked very unintelligibly and could give no account of what had happened in the three days he had been at liberty, nor could he tell where he had gotten the horse he was riding the night before. He was brought to Ironton Saturday evening and that night Sheriff Marshall and Mr. O'Neal took him to Farmington.

The following appeared in last Saturday's Globe-Democrat, telegraphed from Monroe City, Mo.: "George W. Raney, of Monroe City, and Mrs. Virginia C. James, of St. Louis, are announced to marry on Tuesday, October 17th. Mr. Raney is a young man of exemplary habits, is of limited means, and for a number of years has filled a clerkship in a leading drug store in this city. The bride-elect has been married three times and is 69 years of age. Her last husband was the late Rev. James, who was the rector of the Episcopal church at Ironton, Mo., during his last illness. Mrs. James at present resides in Ironton, but spends considerable of her time in St. Louis. She is reputed to be very wealthy, having large real estate interests near Toronto, Can. As her prospective husband is a devout Catholic, she will embrace that faith. The wedding ceremony will take place at the Rock church, in St. Louis." In reference to the above the Globe-Democrat says: "The clergy at the St. Alphonsus (Rock) church, Grand and Finney avenues, stated yesterday that as far as they knew Mrs. Virginia C. James would not be received into the fold of the Catholic church at that church next Sunday night, as there is no one of that name under instructions at the present time. They were also ignorant of any plans for the wedding, they said. Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle of the Protestant Episcopal church said that he had lost track of Mrs. James a little more than a year ago. Mrs. James appears to have divided her time between Palmyra and Ironton." Mrs. James has a host of friends in the Valley, and they all join the REGISTER in wishing her bon voyage on her fourth venture on the matrimonial sea.

To Whom It May Concern.

The Enterprise, in its issue dated September 7th, published the following article:

"Iron county needs a superintendent of public schools—and badly. Strictly speaking, the county has been without one for almost six months. It was many months ago that O. J. Buford, the incumbent at that time, legally vacated the office by leaving the county, and since then the office has been practically without an occupant. For the purpose, however, of playing with the Governor's time and his own vanity, Mr. Buford has tendered his 'resignation,' but with Prof. Daugherty tied to the string—that is, Buford resigns providing Daugherty is appointed for his berth. Nice work, that. But what's the diff? We want a superintendent, and want him badly."

I can not say what was the intention of the writer at that time, unless it was meant for a reflection upon the character of the undersigned. In justice to myself I felt that I owed it to this gentleman to make him a call in regard to the matter. I did so, and gave him to understand most emphatically, that his article was a lie in so far as I or Mr. Daugherty was concerned. He promptly shifted the responsibility by laying it at the door of a prominent clergyman of this city.

At this time I refrain from mentioning this minister's name, in order to give him the chance to affirm or deny the charge laid at his door by Byers. This affirmation or denial I demand, and if the same is not forthcoming in the next issue of this paper, I shall publish names and facts as they are.

Yours, Truly,

O. J. BUFORD.

Ironton, September 27, 1905.

Abscess.

W. H. Harrison, of Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store (who is now in Denver, Colo.) He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world." Abscesses, with few exceptions, are indicative of constipation or debility. They may, however, result from blows or from foreign bodies, introduced into the skin or flesh, such as splinters, thorns, etc. Sold by Arcadia Valley Drug Co.
